

USHBC

United States Hispanic Business Council

www.ushbc.com

Who We Are:

The United States Hispanic Business Council (USHBC) is a 501(c)6 non-profit association led by a Board of Directors composed of 10 business leaders including Don Salazar, as its Chairman and Javier Palomarez, as its President & CEO. Our intent is to bolster economic development and growth by educating and influencing through commerce, politics, and media.

The USHBC advocates for American business builders, job creators, and taxpayers to have a voice in the national dialogue. We are committed to raising the profile of the USHBC and making it the face of Hispanic-American business advocacy in Washington D.C. and beyond. We promote policies and people that represent the breadth of our nation's diverse population, the future of our economy, and the changing face of America.

Fast Facts:

- The USHBC has garnered more national media coverage than all other Hispanic advocacy groups combined.
- The USHBC is funded by board member contributions and corporate sponsorship and is precluded from taking any government funding of any kind
- The USHBC's board is composed exclusively of business owners.

Areas of Focus:

The U.S. Hispanic Business Council focuses on national advocacy in the following topics:
Small Business, Finance,
Agriculture, Construction,
Infrastructure, Technology,
Healthcare, Immigration and Public Policy.